Drop/Withdrawals:

Students who do not complete the drop and/or withdrawal process by the appropriate deadline will be assigned a grade in each of their classes. Students officially dropping or withdrawing from the College are eligible for a refund of tuition and fees according to the following schedule. Class days indicated below are as defined by the Official College calendar, and not by the individual student's or course's schedule. Effective May 1, 2006, the Texas College of Traditional Chinese Medicine's refund policy for withdrawal from registered coursework is as follows:

Day of the Trimester Calendar Refund Amount

Prior to the first day 100%

First through fifth days 80%

Sixth through tenth days 70%

Eleventh through fifteenth days 50%

Sixteenth through twentieth days 25%

After the twentieth day No refund

Any student wishing to drop a course or withdraw from the College must contact the Registrar's Office to complete the drop and/or withdrawal process. Once purchased, books and other materials are the property of the student. This school does not accept material returns and makes no refunds for materials. A student may terminate enrollment by sending written notice to the school. Any refunds will be made by the school within 30 days.
